

Resources and support for behavioral health

Your overall health includes both your physical and mental well-being. That's why your health plan offers resources and tools to support both.

We want to make it easier to take care of your mental health. Your benefits offer a variety of options so you can choose the ones that fit your needs and preferences, including in-person or virtual appointments with a provider and even self-guided tools you can use on your own.

Find in-network care

We offer a robust, high-quality network of mental health professionals (including psychiatrists, psychologists, and counselors). Here are ways to find an in-network mental health professional:

- Use the Find a Doctor tool online. Log in at ibx.com anytime or use the free IBX app to search for an in-network provider. Each provider's profile includes information about their areas of focus, as well as whether they offer in-person and/or virtual appointments.
- Find your match with Quartet. Quartet is a personal service that can help you find an in-network mental health professional who fits your needs and accepts your coverage. Visit quartetthehealth.com/ibx to get started.
- Call a Customer Care Advocate. Call the Mental Health/Substance Abuse number on the back of your member ID card to talk to a Customer Care Advocate. They can send you a list of in-network providers who meet your needs or even schedule an appointment for you.

One-on-one support

Call the Mental Health/Substance Abuse number on the back of your member ID card to be connected to Customer Care Advocates who can:

- Help you find in-network care
- Answer specific questions about your benefits and claims
- Connect you to a licensed clinician for in-the-moment support

Navigate complex care with case management

Depending on your needs, you may be contacted by a case manager to offer support at critical points before, during, or after treatment. Case managers provide personal support and can help you coordinate and manage your individual care.

Virtual care and online resources

Virtual care and online resources are convenient, flexible, and confidential — and you can access it all from the comfort of your home.
